

Hello All,

FYI:

More than eight years ago I started the first test photographs for my 1h project. I never expected to be working on this project for such a long time. And I never expected that it would literally take me on a trip around the world, not in 80 but in 91 days.

I'm happy to announce the publication of my new book Hans-Christian Schink – 1h, which will be presented for the first time at the opening reception of my exhibition at the Landesgalerie Linz, Austria.

Hans-Christian Schink – 1h, Texts by Martin Hochleitner, Dorothea Ritter and Michael Pidwirny, Hatje Cantz Publishers, Ostfildern 2010

Another reason to stop by in Linz:

A second show will be on view at the same venue. It's one of the most legendary exhibitions in the history of photography:

New Topographics, 140 works by Robert Adams, Lewis Baltz, Bernd and Hilla Becher, Joe Deal, Frank Gohlke, Nicholas Nixon, John Schott, Stephen Shore and Henry Wessel jr.
Supplement: Contemporary works by Joachim Brohm, Andrew Phelps and Mario Pfeifer

To complete the list of worthwhile events on this day:

Selected works from my series Vietnam and Niigata will be presented just a few minutes away from the museum:
