

Hello All,

The winter isn't over yet, the crisis fills the headlines: time for better news.

Finally the complete version of my website is now online: www.hc-schink.de
You'll find selected works from my various projects as well as the usual information like CV, press articles and gallery contact. The site provides also news on current and upcoming exhibitions.

But I'll continue to send out the newsletter periodically.

This time to announce my first solo show at De Zaal Gallery in Delft, The Netherlands. The show called „What We Built“ will present works from four different projects, all dealing with various aspects of manmade environment. The photographs were selected from the series Fläming (Germany, 1997), Los Angeles (2002), Peru (2004) and Dubai (2005).

Opening reception: Sunday, February 22, 2-5 pm

Exhibition runs through April 5.

Until February 20 there's a chance to see the current show at my Berlin showroom:

„Hochsitz“, Photographs by Bertram Kober.

Opens Friday from 3-7 pm or by appointment: +49-171-2622652

All galleries around the Hamburger Bahnhof Museum of Contemporary Art will hold their next opening reception from 6 pm until 9 pm on Friday, February 27. I'd like to invite you to come and see „To the Moon“, a new project by Berlin-based photographer Linn Schröder. The show was curated by Nicola Graef, director and producer („Ich, Immendorf“).

This will be the last show I'm organising at this venue. In the future I plan to focus more on my own work again.

On April 1st, I'll hand over the keys to Ms. Chen Yang (Chaos Y. Chen), a curator from Beijing who recently co-founded 'WiE Kultur GmbH' in Berlin, a facility that focuses on art and cultural exchanges between China and Europe. She will transform the Schauraum into an incubation base for art and design, for research and discussion.

Based in Berlin is also the office of AFF architects. Last year Martin and Sven Fröhlich invited me to take a look at their most important project so far: Rebuilding Schloss Freudenstein in Freiberg, Saxony. I took more than one picture.

Some of them will be on display at the exhibition „AFF – Teile zum Ganzen“ at Architektur Galerie Berlin. The book „AFF: Teile zum Ganzen / AFF architects: An Aggregate Body“ on this internationally acclaimed project, published by Wasmuth-Verlag, will be released at the opening.
