

Hello All,

FYI:

Twenty years ago the Iron Curtain was about to fall. But in October 1989 no one could believe it.

The exhibition EAST — FOR THE RECORD at the Museum of Fine Arts Leipzig takes a specific look back at this period of change.

Works of more than 70 photographers from the Verbundnetz Gas AG Leipzig collection show a great variety of perspectives of these crucial weeks.

A catalogue will be published by Steidl publishers.

EAST — FOR THE RECORD

October 4, 2009 – January 10, 2010

Opening reception: Saturday, October 3, 2009, 6 pm

Museum der Bildenden Künste (Museum of Fine Arts) Leipzig, Katharinenstrasse 10, 04109 Leipzig, Germany

On the same day another exhibition will open there: 60/40/20 – Art from Leipzig since 1949

Sixty years ago the two German states were founded. The German Democratic Republic existed for forty years.

I have lived in Leipzig for 23 years now, which is almost half of my life. That put me on the list of artists whose works have been selected for this show.
